How can we decolonize our societal imaginary?

- 1) Education (“paideia”)
- 2) Establishing a degrowth society and institutions
- 3) ACTIONS

What is your relationship to waste?

- actions to reduce & reuse “waste”
- educating the public
- creating community

BUT...

Does this bottom-up approach work without 'top-down' help?

How to change our culture to not create waste in the first place?

How to expand the networks?
